N/A	N/A	Library of the Year Nomination for 1994 Scrapbook (1989-1993) contains photographs, programs, brochures, newspaper articles and ephemera documenting Voorheesville Public Library's promotion of "community". Events covered include the 1989 all-volunteer move from the former small church to the new facility; a grant funded program ($130,000) entitled Poets in Person – New York, and a year long celebration spearheaded by Voorheesville Public Library called Small Town at the Millennium . Culminating in a two day festival (5/ 29/93-5/ 30/93), Small Town at the Millennium included a panel on business development and the future of the small town, a high school humanities open house, the development of an historical guide to the town, a block dance, a community choir, an art show, and cooperative games for children.  This 16" x 14"x 2" black vinyl scrapbook is located in the Community Room, Locked Cabinet 1, Shelf 6.
